BYRON'S BY—LINE

In accordance with the by-law changes adopted at the August 1973 TAMS meetings, I am issuing a call for nominations for officers and board members to serve the term from August 1974 to August 1976. Nominations are to be made in writing and submitted to the Secretary, Dorothy Baber, 611 Oakwood Way, El Cajon, Calif. 92021, between January 1st and March 1st, 1974.

To be nominated are President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice-President, and ten Board members. Board nominees must be members in good standing. Nominees for President and Vice-President must also have served at least one term as a member of the Executive Board. Past-presidents cannot be candidates for the offices of President or Vice-President.

In order to be a candidate for office, a member must receive nominations from ten members in good standing. No member can nominate himself. No member can nominate for office a number of candidates in excess of that to be elected for said office.

Nominees will be notified by the Secretary and must accept in writing not later than March 10th, 1974. The June issue of the Journal will publish a list of the nominees with a short biography detailing their service to the Society and to numismatics. Ballots will be mailed to the membership prior to July 1st. Members must return the ballot in the official envelope at least 20 days prior to the annual membership meeting.

I was not completely clear in the last issue regards the new Scout Merit badge for numismatics. Scouts cannot opt for tokens and medals exclusively. Certain coin requirements are still made. But an option for exonumia, paper money, and coins exists in one of the sections. Another section is concerned with grading. We will print the new requirements when they are finalized.

The chairmen of the TAMS Valuation Committees have been reporting in their progress. Some are well along and some are having problems because of the vast scope of their material. Hopefully, we can have some results for you in the coming year.

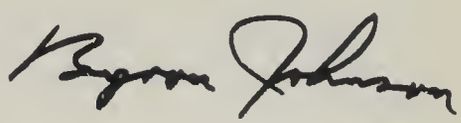
Bob Julian is hard at work obtaining microfilm and xerox copies of Mint records and material in the National Archives for his projected work listing every Mint medal issued through 1899. This proposed catalog will illustrate each medal, describe it, list the size, metal, date of striking, numbers struck, designer, engraver, and background of the pieces. TAMS is pleased to be helping finance this vast undertaking. At a later date we may ask members to help us locate rare specimens for illustration.

Now that colder weather is upon us, please sit down and write an article for us to publish in the Journal. We are dangerously low in our file of articles and really need them. Share your knowledge with the rest of the membership. Thank you.

When your dues statement comes in the mail shortly, please renew promptly. With the proposed increase in postal rates it is expensive to mail you a second notice. We promise you your money's worth. Besides the six regular issues of the Journal, we have planned again for two bonus issues for 1974.

And please sign up some new members for us. The Secretary can supply you with membership applications. Or write me. I have a stack of them too. Be an active member and get more satisfaction out of your hobby.

Best regards for the holiday season.



Anyone having information about the Quint Co. of Philadelphia is requested to contact Carmen D. Valentino, 2956 Richmond Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19134. Carmen seeks descriptions of any exonumist material struck by Quint Co. for use in a future article listing those tokens issued.

"AMERICAN GAME COUNTERS"
SECOND SUPPLEMENT

By Russell Rulau
and Dr. George Fuld

Supplemental data, additions and a few corrections continue to be reported to the "American Game Counters" book published by TAMS in December, 1972, and to the First Supplement appearing in the February, 1973 issue of the TAMS Journal.

All the addenda and corrigenda collected in the past half year, which the authors find to be of merit, has been compiled into the Second Supplement which follows. TAMS members may remove this Supplement from the Journal and insert it under the covers of their "American Game Counters" volume.

Especially enlarged with this Supplement is the section on counters of Latin America. It was decided to include those modern gaming tokens used in the Caribbean islands and in South America, many of which are products of the Franklin Mint, Franklin Center, Pa.

This type of token was deliberately excluded from the United States section because of the great number of such pieces struck for Nevada casinos and dog tracks in Arizona, Florida, etc., but the number struck and used in Latin American nations seemed small enough to be reasonably included.

Many of the contributors to the original volume also aided with this Supplement, and they are again thanked for their assistance. In addition, all the following numismatists have been helpful in providing data to make the catalog more complete:

Elmer M. Downey, Lt. Col. Arthur Hyman, J. Marshall English, Byron Johnson, Glenn A. Mooney, Barry Uman, David E. Lee, Richard F. Herberg, Robert E. Ambrose, Lloyd Gable, Howard H. Kurth, Warren Baker, Grant Washburn, William Krieg, Lewis L. Egnew and Gerard A. McLellan.

Also, Gene Mushinski, C. R. Clark, Ellis Edlow, Stanley Brown, Alva Christensen, Ethel R. Stone, Clarence K. Grant, Clancy Riggs, John G. Nicolosi and Alan C. T. Weighell.

Special thanks are due to Ferdinand R. Wise, research associate, section of coins and medals at Carnegie Museum, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Collector Lewis L. Egnew of Port Townsend, Wash., who reveals he worked for the Puget Sound Stamp Works in Seattle years ago and has a working background in die making, token making, badge and jewelry fabrication, told us this about certain counters in our original listings:

"Tokens Egm-4A, Egm-6 etc.; also Mex-3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, Uru-3 and many others were made to be attached to hat pins. Most of them can be identified by the small blank circle in the center of the reverse.

"I had at one time jewelry catalogs listing these and any large representative collection of hat pins will have examples. Most are of U.S. or Mexico on obverse, but some are of Oriental types as well.

"If you will note, Uru-4 is made for a pin, attachment. The square is for the pin to be soldered on and the circle for the loop to hold the pin. Some of the examples in the catalog — Uru-6, Mex-9 etc. — show removal of the hat pin."

Collector Steven J. Razum. Youngstown, Ohio, has discovered a very interesting item which supplies a further link between metallic game counters, early vulcanite, celluloid or bone poker chips, and modern-day plastic poker chips.

Razum now owns a white cardboard box containing 100 plain discs of hard, pressed, polished cardboard. Each disc is colored and measures 41 millimeters. No design or lettering of any kind appears on the discs, of which there are 25 blue, 25 red and 50 white.

The upper label of the box reads: 100 DENNISON'S No. 4 / INDESTRUCTIBLE GAME COUNTERS / MANUFACTURED BY / DENNISON MFG. CO. / BOSTON, NEW YORK, PHILADELPHIA, CHICAGO, CINCINNATI, ST. LOUIS.

Ind-A1. Similar to Ind-1 (Copy of 1898-D Liberty Head Eagle with blundered reverse legend) but from slightly different dies. The most striking difference is that the motto on reverse scroll on Ind-A1 reads IN GOD WE TRUST, while the motto reads INOD WE TOST on Ind-1. Brass. Plain edge. 27mm. R-9

The most incredible circumstance surrounded the discovery of this counter. It was offered to co-author Russ Rulau in Odessa, USSR in June, 1973, by a Ukrainian collector who thought it might be an American gold piece. It seems it was brought to Odessa many years ago by a seaman.

Chapter V — IMITATION UNITED STATES GOLD COINS

(1) ONE DOLLAR

One-17. (CORRECTION: Reduce rarity from R-7 to R-6.)

See Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine, September 1973, page 846. Since the NSM report of a possible new unlisted counter, it has been determined that the reported specimen is the same as that intended for Kurth 81F and Rulau-Fuld One-17. It is illustrated here since it has not previously been pictured for TAMS members.

On type 2A, the upright of K points toward the center of the letter Y. (There are also other lettering differences in the two obverse dies). Brass. Plain edge. 35mm. R-7

It seems odd that two different obverse dies were used to strike a token to be used only one night!

Swa-6. As 5, but 28mm. Brass. Plain edge. R-7

Sam Chong is listed in Polk's Directories in the 1920's under cigar and confectionery stores. His address was 11 South Front Street in Yakima. Robert E. Ambrose, Camas, Wash., says, "I suspect he had a card room as well," in which the tokens found use.

A good number of other Chinese-American tokens of the Western states have been reported to the authors in the past few months, but definite information is lacking in most of them as to whether they may have served as game counters. Therefore they are not being listed at this time.

Swa-18. K. & V. CARD / - & - / POOL ROOM / 211. 1, AVE. SO / .-. / SEATTLE. Rev: GOOD FOR / * 5c * / IN TRADE. Aluminum. Scalloped flan. Plain edge. 26mm. R-6 many French tokens of the "A Consommer" type, some of which bear the maker's name CARTAUX.

Only incomplete descriptions are available for three pieces of this set of Grand Bahama Club counters. See World Coins, March, 1967, page 234.

Though the metal described for 1, 3 and 4 is brass, following the description given in the World Coins advertisement of the late Dan Engelberg, the metal of Bhm-2 — in the Rulau collection — is a cupro-nickel alloy of undetermined ratio.

Counters of this type were probably for use purely in France and thus are normally excluded from the catalog. Several collectors have commented that they cannot understand the dividing line between exclusion and inclusion in the Anonymous section. We admit the line is tenuous.

The United States purchased French Louisiana in 1803 from Napoleon I, and French influence remained strong there for many years. It is possible counters of this type may have found favor in New Orleans, but evidence has not surfaced to this point.

Howard H. Kurth, Schenectady, N.Y., does not agree with our description of the figure on obverse as an Indian standing. He writes, "Concerning Ann-117, I do not think that this was intended to be an Indian.

"I recall seeing, in an old children's reader, a similar picture to illustrate the shocking condition that befell a small boy who refused to have his hair and nails cut."

Kurth's description is logical and we accept it. It removes doubt as to what it is the "Indian" has sprouting from his hands. Furthermore, it seems to give Ann-117 (pictured on page 28, TAMS Journal for February 1973) a genuine American flavor.

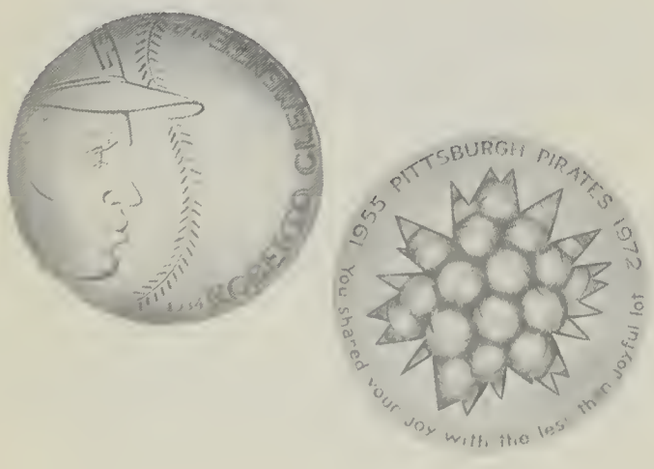
COMMEMORATIVE MEDALS HONORING ROBERTO CLEMENTE ARE STRUCK BY U.S. MINT AND RELEASED IN PITTSBURGH

DAVID L. GANZ, TAMS #2769



Two distinctive commemorative medals have been struck by the United States Mint to honor the late Roberto Walker Clemente, the great baseball player for the Pittsburgh Pirates. The medals, struck in identical design in both 3 inch diameter bronze and 1-5/16 inch gold-plated bronze, are available at $10.50 each from the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Penna. 15219.

The first medal was unveiled to the public on September 18, in ceremonies held at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh. The Stadium is the sight for the final months of Clemente's career, which was cut tragically short on December 31, 1972 when the plane he was flying to aid the earthquake victims of Managua, Nicaragua crashed shortly after takeoff.

Clemente began his career with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1955 at old Forbes Field. The Pirates drafted him at the end of the 1954 season from the Triple-A Montreal Club of the old Brooklyn Dodgers. During his 18 seasons with the Pirates, he batted over .300 thirteen times, won the National League batting title four times, was awarded the Golden Glove for fielding excellence a dozen times, and hit more than 3,000 base hits — a feat accomplished by only ten other players in baseball's long history. His lifetime batting average as a Pirate was .317.

The medal honoring Clemente commemorates both his superb athletic record and the humanitarian idealism that cost him his life. Designed by Pittsburgh artist Virgil Cantini, and produced by the United States Mint at Philadelphia, the obverse of the medal depicts Clemente's profile along with the incused curves of a baseball seam. The reverse depicts several baseballs crashing through a symbolic barrier, which represents both the baseball records that Clemente smashed and the impact that he had on the sport through his humanitarian gestures.

The reverse also contains a single line from a poem written by Maria Cantini, daughter of the medal's designer. The phrase points to the key to Clemente's life when it notes: "You shared your joy with the less than joyful lot."

The medal was authorized by Congress following passage of legislation that was jointly introduced by the Pennsylvania delegation. President Nixon approved the commemorative medal bill on May 14 in impressive White House ceremonies.

A total of 200,000 medals have been authorized by the legislation, and none may be struck by the Mint after December 31, 1974. Each of the medals will bear the "P" mintmark, signifying their production at the Philadelphia parent minting facility.

The three inch bronze medallions will be serially numbered; the 1-5/16 inch gold-plated bronze medals will not be. The gold-plated bronze medal will be sold as a pendant, however the loop holding the medal is detachable.

Profits from the sale of the medal will go to the Roberto Clemente Memorial Fund. The actual cost of producing the medal — including engraving and die charges — will be borne by several Pittsburgh corporations.

The medal will be sold by mail by the Chamber of Commerce, however residents of Pittsburgh will be able to purchase the medals in several of the city's leading department stores.

ZEPPELIN FLIGHTS 1900-1908

Allan R. Bergman, TAMS #2137

PLAQUE COMMEMORATING THE 100th BIRTHDATE OF COUNT ZEPPELIN. 1838-1938.

COUNT ZEPPELIN —
INSCRIPTION, MAN. MUSS. NUR. WOLLEN.

Graf Zeppelin, born of noble parents first experienced the trials of war at the early age of ten. In 1848 - 1849 the Badischen Insurgents were badly defeated, by the Prince of Prussia, who later became Kaiser Wilhelm I.

Zeppelin's early life was molded by his mother and father who installed in him the qualities that later carried him through the early years of experimentation. He finished high school in Stuttgart and entered the Military Academy at Ludwigsburg. Graduating a Lieutenant of the Infantry, he decided to take a leave of absence and enrolled at the University of Tubingen.

In the spring of 1859 he was called to the Engineers Corp. to ULM, and in August of the same year he was transferred to the general headquarters with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

In 1863 at the age of twenty five, we find young Zeppelin taking part in the War of Secession, (Civil War) in America. From President Lincoln he received permission to move freely with the northern armies. The prime motivation being to gain experience from the art of warfare. After several adventures, Zeppelin turns up in St. Paul, Minn. and takes his first balloon assention, thus leading us to believe that the idea of balloons in warfare, just entered his mind while floating over the city.

Germany almost lost Zeppelin on one adventure. With two Russians and two Indians, he went out on an expedition to discover the source of the Mississippi River. Soon their supplies ran low and finally without anything to eat, their only chance of survival lay in catching water rats and eating them.

Back home he took part in the battle by Aschaffenburg and received the distinguished service cross for saving possibly a whole division of troops by risking his life crossing the river main and reporting the maneuvers of the enemy. In 1867 he was sent to Berlin and joined the life guards hussars for Prince Wilhelm who later became King of Wurtemberg.

The German-Franco War of 1870, brought more honors to our Count Zeppelin. He received the Cross of The Knight First Class With Swords, as well as the Iron Cross. His rank was officer of the general staff in the Rider - Brigade.

In 1872 he was transferred to the Schleswig — Holstein Lancer Regiment 15. Further promotions in 1874 to Major of The Dragoon Regiment 26 in Ulm. Then in 1882 to Commander of The Lancer Regiment No. 19. Again in 1885 he became the authorized Minister for Wurthenberg in Berlin. Continuing in 1888 he became General A La Suite to the King of Wurttenberg. Finally in 1890 he was promoted to Lieutenant General of The Calvary Brigade No. 30 in Saarburg in Lothringen (Lorraine).

After his military retirement in 1891, Count Zeppelin devoted his full time developing a practicable airship. Zeppelin's idea was that of an airship that would not change its shape and would contain a number of independent gas cells. To accomplish this, a rigid framework of aluminum alloy would give great strength in relation to its weight. A rigid airship could avoid undue stress and other difficulties caused in a flabbly envelope, by encasing the gas cells in an unyielding covering stretched over a metal framework. Imagine a cigar with two little boat shaped cars on each end for passengers, a rudder at each end, and motors attached to the cars.

By 1894 he had finished his design, but while the emperor acknowledged the plan he would not put forth the money for it to succeed.

Count Zeppelin's great faith in the project and his attitude of persistence carried on, and in 1898 he formed a joint stock company with a starting capital of 800,000 marks. With this money the first airship LZ I was built.

THE ASSEMBLING HALL

The story of Count Zeppelin's early airships would not be complete without relating some details of the hall or building shed that showed the amazing ingenuity of the Count and his co-workers.

The first hall was built on the Bay Manzell at the Bodensee. It was 140 meters long and rested 600 meters off shore. Lying on 95 swimming pontoons it was anchored at the front to turn with the wind.

In 1904 a permanent hall was constructed on land. The third hall, built in September 1907 was 150 meters long, made out of iron, lined with wood and rested on 38 iron pontoons. A wire rope almost 4" thick anchored it to a block of concrete at the bottom of the lake. An iron float could be drawn out. This stood on 28 pontoons 112 meters long and 7 meters wide. The airship could be pulled into and out of the hall on these portable pontoons.

THE FIRST FLIGHT

In the annals of airship history, it is recorded that on July 2, 1900 Eugene Wolf in command of one of the aluminum cars remarked, "We rose some 1300 feet over the waters of the lake and traveled three and three quarter miles in seven minutes in the direction we wanted, that of a small village on the shore called Immenstadt." Mr. Wolf goes on to describe the functioning of the airship. "Being in the rear car where I was watching the proceedings and taking Count Zeppelins orders through the speaking tube, I noticed that one of the rudders suddenly ceased to obey, and through my field glass I saw that the steering apparatus in the front boat was out of order." Describing the decent and how the airship was rolled on the pontoons Wolf said. "After settling on the water we remained quietly in the boats while the rope of the running weight was cleared, and then we prepared to go upon the pontoon which was to carry the airship back to the shed. It was a simple matter. The crew of the forward car stepped out, thus lessening the weight at that end of the ship by some 550 pounds. Instantly the forward car was on to the pontoon without the slightest difficulty. The crew of the rear car did the same and the airship was rolled on the pontoon by using the two rubber tired landing wheels, fixed under the aluminum cars."

Besides Eugene Wolf, the famous African explorer, the other first airshipman included Baron Bassus, the engineer, Burr, the mechanic, Gross, and of course Count Zeppelin.

The second flight took place on October 17, that same year. After an hour and ten minutes in the air, the motors stopped. Someone had put distilled water in the gas tanks by mistake. Now the airship fell to the surface of the water substaining little damage and was pulled into the shed by the boat, "Wurttemberg". A young journalist named Dr. Hugo Eckener, reporting in the Frankfurter Zeitung commented, "We cannot be sure that the slow forward motion of the airship may not principally have been due to slight current of air." Later Dr. Eckener became the famous commander of the airship, "Graf Zeppelin."

On the 21st of October of the same month the third and last flight of the L Z I took place. Making little progress in the air it was doomed to failure and disappointment.

Appearing before a gathering at the Philharmonic Hall in Berlin in January 1901, Count Zeppelin reported the details of his historic achievement. For this occassion he received the distinguished, "Red Eagles Order First Class," from the emperor.

FIRST FLIGHT OF L Z I.

DETAILS OF L Z I

425 ft. long
38 ft. diameter
Frame - aluminum alloy
24 bridge like girders
16 transverse rings
16 gas cells
351,150 cu. ft. gas
Lifting power - 11 tons

Constructed with a narrow catwalk making it possible to reach any part of the airship.

Covered with a cotton fabric.

Two aluminum cars hang below the airship made to float on water.

Accent and decent controlled by a 500 lb. weight attached to moving cables.

Powered by two benzine engines of 16 h.p. each pulled from shed by little steamer, Buchhorn.

Run by the King of Wurttemberg and together with other contributions, the finances for L Z 2 was acquired.

Many improvements were made, a new rudder assembly, larger motors, increased to 170 h.p.; and the latticed girders were replaced with triangular girders.

On November 30, 1905 the airship was damaged while towed out of the shed, and the first flight was not made until January 17, 1906. Disaster befell the airship rudder controls, the motors stopped, and the airship was a helpless floating mass. By a stroke of luck a solid ground landing was performed and the airship tied down. But ill-fortune again was the victor and violent winds tore the airship apart.

The more than determined Count was now selling his assets to raise money for the building of the third Zeppelin, LZ 3. With a new lottery, enough money was gathered so that by autumn of 1906 the new airship was completed.

Technology had brought forth new ideas and after test flights it was thought success finally had to come to our Count Zeppelin. On October 9, the airship made a two hour flight and returned safely to its starting point. For this feat the title of Doctor of Engineering was bestowed on Count Zeppelin.

Now the populous went wild with this new facination, the airship! They considered it with the national pride, that this was their invention, and that Germany now had perfected a new frightening weapon.

In September, 1907 the Count made several successful trips including an eight hour flight to Ravensbury, reaching an altitude of almost three thousand feet.

On October 20, 1907 Count Zeppelin received the great cross from King Wilhelm of Wurttenberg. In the summer of 1908 the King and his wife became firm believers in the usefullness of the airships after taking a trip in one.

KING WILHELM VON WURTTEMBERG IN THE GONDOLA (JULY 3, 1908)

Now with the Zeppelin fever rising, more offers of financial aid came. The government's attitude changed and they promised to subsidize future costs, if the Count would make a twenty-four hour flight.

The new airship was now 446 ft. long with a diameter of 42 ft. It was covered with a pegamoid which kept out the rain and made it insensitive to temperature changes. Another covering of white cotton gave it a brilliant shine. Inside rests seventeen separate gas cells. Gas containers filled with hydrogen are transported from the factory to the airship shed. Here the gas cells are filled with 650 cu. meters for each of the seventeen separate cells. There are two propellers each with a diameter of 7.2 feet revolving at 800 meters r.p.m Two aluminum boats (Gondolas) contain all the instruments including a compass, thermometer, borometer, etc. Each boat has four cylinder engine of 105 h.p. along the keel, the length of the airship while it is airborne. In the middle of the running board is a statesroom about twenty-six feet long and six and a half feet wide.

It is completely furnished and can be used also as a bedroom. The windows are made of mica with a partly transparent floor. (evidently to view the countryside.) There is also a staircase which goes up through the ship to the top where one can observe the sky.

THE STATESROOM

Being able to stay aloft for four days, we now have what could be considered the beginnings of passenger airship travel. For this accomplishment Count Zeppelin received the Grashof Medal, the highest award the society of German engineers can bestow.

THE TWELVE HOUR FLIGHT

Airship history was made on July 1, 1908. On that day the Zeppelin flew from Manzell to Konstanz, crossed the River Rhein via Basel, over to Luzern and Zurich, and back again to its starting point.

This was a historic day for Count Zeppelin. Not only was this the longest trip up to this date, but because of the high mountains the airship crossed, record altitudes were set.

Failure and rejection were now in the past. Success and esteem now looked brightly in the future. But now the Count was 70 years old, and in his honor the city of Constanz had a huge birthday party and bestowed on him the title of honorary freeman. Revered by the people, and as determined as ever, he again set about to put Germany at the head of World Airship Development.

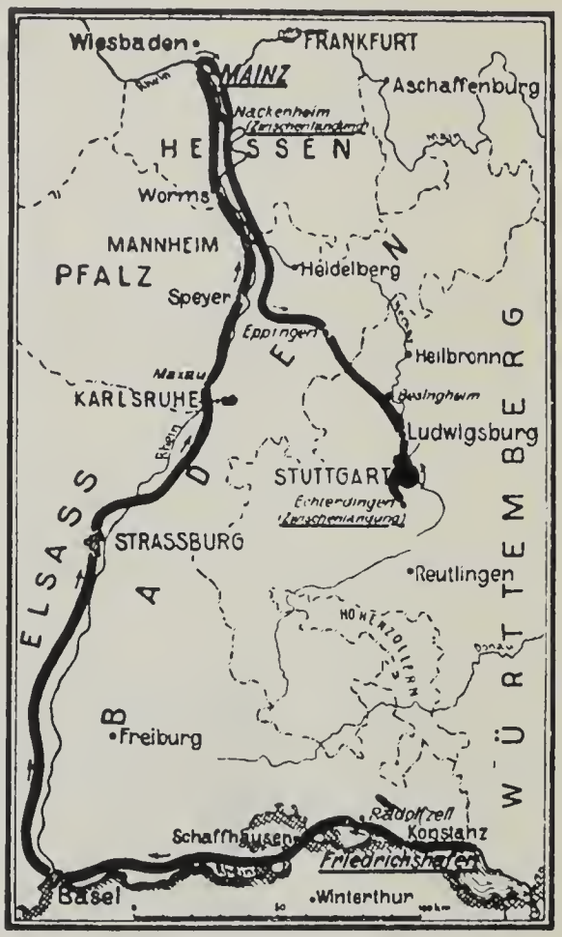
THE TWENTY-FOUR HOUR FLIGHT
AUGUST 4 - 5, 1908

Leaving the shed early in the morning, and carrying government officials, the LZ 4 followed the Rhine, the first city passed was Basel, soon Strassburg was reached, by midnight the airship was in Mainz. So far the speed had averaged 24 miles an hour, but now it dropped to 12 miles an hour as she swung around and headed back to Lake Constance. LZ 4 now experienced engine trouble and was forced to land at Echterdingen, near Stuttgart. The airship had traveled 370 miles and had been airborne for over twenty hours.

Disaster was not new to Count Zeppelin, and again ill fortune struck. While the airship was temporarily held fast, a sudden storm arose, and ferocious winds played havoc with the airship. Unable to hold her fast the airship broke away and burst into flames. Those hanging on to the ropes dropped off while the spectators watched in horror. A dejected Count Zeppelin watching the ruins probably wondered if he could still go on. It didn't take long to find out, for in the next few days contributions poured in from all parts of Germany and soon another airship LZ5 was being started on.

In the latter part of 1908 Count Zeppelin made several flights with the repaired LZ 3 and Prince Henry of Prussia and the Crown Prince himself were given rides in the airship. In November Count Zeppelin received the order of the Black Eagle.

The future of airship passenger service was just around the corner for in 1909 the first passenger service on a regular basis was formed, but thats another story for another time.



After the great trip along the Rhine with the return over Stuttgart (August 4-5, 1908) A vignette was issued showing the airship over Stuttgart with a small portrait of the Graf Zeppelin in a circle underneath a picture of the town. The text in the frame of the vignette reads "MEN WILL TALK ABOUT THE ZEPPELIN, AS LONG AS THE MOUNTAINS STAND ON THEIR GROUND"; underneath the portrait are the words "IN HONOR AND IN MEMORY OF THE CONQUEROR OF THE AIR." This vignette was issued on various colored papers as well as with the portrait and the inscription imprinted in black on such colored vignettes. Imperforate copies also exist in addition to the regular perforated issue.

Rx. Around, * TO THE BEE-HIVE * 17 NORTH 8TH ST. PHILADA.. In center a lady sitting side saddle on a horse to right.

METAL: Brass. SIZE: 21.5mm. Adams & Miller-PA.-382.

A most interesting piece, very well executed. One never sees these early tokens in such excellent condition.

MASURY PAINT

Ob. In four lines, MASURY / IS / . GOOD . / PAINT /

METAL: Brass. SIZE: 26mm.

A very unusual lucky piece, as "LUCKY BE" is not found on many good luck pieces. Masury Paint is still in existence.

INTER STATE HAY PALACE, MOMENCE, ILL.

Ob. Around, * INTER STATE HAY PALACE * MOMENCE, ILL. In center within solid circle the palace.

Rx. Around, * INTER STATE HAY PALACE * MOMENCE, ILL. In center within solid circle in four lines, a bale of hay / SOUVENIR / OCT. 1, TO 11, 1890 /

METAL: White metal. SIZE: 34mm. RARITY: 8.

It is strange that neither Wright or Adams listed this piece. Like a good many old time things Hay Palaces are a thing of the past. There are also probable other obsolete tokens in existence and am sure our readers would like to see them. Send them in!

EARL'S COURT

Rx. In twelve lines, THE / GIGANTIC WHEEL / AT EARLS COURT IS / 284 FEET IN DIAMETER / & WEIGHS ABOUT 900 TONS. / THER ARE 40 CARS, EACH / TO CARRY 30 PERSONS. / FROM THE TOP OF THE / WHEEL ABOUT 300 FEET / WINDSOR CASTLE IS / VISIBLE ON THE / WEST./

METAL: Copper. SIZE: 31.5mm. RARITY: 6.

If Windsor Castle did not appear on reverse one would have to call this piece a maverick. However, if one consulted GUINNESS BOOK OF WORLD RECORDS, page 203, one would find out about the EARL'S COURT and the wheel.

We knew about the wheel because we showed two calendars made by H. Greuber & Co., 37 Snowhill, London for years 1895/1896, 1896 on page 683, THE NUMISMATIST, June, 1957.

Like-wise in our collection we have an exact piece as shown above except that instead of a reeded edge its edge is plain, and the date is 1905. This leads us to believe that there were other pieces issued for other dates. Also there are probably other calenders issued than mentioned above. Would readers please check their collections to see if other dates exist?

ELEPHANT MAVERICK

Ob. An elephant to left within a circle of beads.

This type piece has appeared in many auctions and should be listed in MAVERICK COLUMN.

TOKEN AND MEDAL SOCIETY BOARD MEETING
August 24, 1973 9:00 A.M.
Sheraton Boston Hotel Boston, Mass.

Meeting was called to order by the President Byron Johnson, and by motion, reading of minutes of 1972 meeting were dispensed with.

Present: Byron Johnson, President; Dottie Dow, 1st Vice President; Cliff Mishler, 2nd Vice President; Neil Harris, Book Editor and Board Member; Charles Ricard, Treasurer; Ellis Edlow, Legal Counsel; Dorothy Baber, Secretary; Virginia Culver, Editor. Board: Jim Betton, Ben Odesser, George Hatie, Arlie Slabaugh, Barbara Hyde, Kurt Fischer. Secretary's report was read, showing a gain in membership of 127 over last year. Total membership as of this date is 1,363.

Proposed amendments to the By-laws were presented by George Hatie, as the Chairman of the committee, Max Schwartz was unable to attend. The proposed amendments affect Article III, Election of Officers, and are amended in an effort to facilitate a more democratic method of electing officers of the Society. Following a discussion relative to the merits of appointing the Secretary and Treasurer in lieu of electing these officers, the Board moved that these offices be appointive offices.

The mail ballot in question will be initiated with the election of 1974 officers, and full particulars are to be worked out by the Committee and published in the December Journal. Nominations from ten (10) members will be required to place a candidate's name on the slate, and nominations for offices of President and Vice President shall be persons who have previously served on the Board of Governors. The Secretary shall be responsible for notifying candidates of their nominations. Resumes of candidates will be published in the Journal, and will not exceed 200 words. Ballots will be mailed by the Secretary, and will be returned to the firm of Certified Public Accounts who prepare the Society's tax forms, and will be opened in the presence of the Committee at the convention.

Further amendments stated that the dues would be determined by the Board instead of called out in the Bylaws; eliminated the three year membership requirement before application for life membership and lowered the minimum age of 12. Board approved these amendments to the Bylaws and they will be printed in the December issue of the Journal. Editor Virginia Culver's report spelled out her continuing problems on the second class mailing permit.

Treasurer's report was presented by Charles Ricard, as well as his statement regarding reinvestment of a portion of the Society's funds in order to receive a higher yield. Following discussion, motion was made by George Hatie, seconded by Ben Odesser that 2,700 shares of the Franklin Mint stock (that amount received as a split this year) be sold and the proceeds invested in a high yield guaranteed Government agency security. Motion carried. Discussion was brought up regarding a budget for operation of the Journal, resulting in a directive by the President that the Budget committee prepare a budget, suggesting a control of the number of pages.

The Miami Token Club has volunteered to host a Hospitality Room for the 1974 convention.

Motion was carried to grant $350.00 for a Junior Scholarship to the 1974 ANA Seminar.

Expenses were granted in the sum of $275.00 for the Secretary to provide a storage shed for the back issues of the Journal.

Neil Harris reported on the progress of the Charles Kappen California Trade Token Book, and also presented a proposal from R. W. Julian, requesting assistance for expenses while preparing a catalog of all the medals struck at the Philadelphia Mint prior to December 31, 1899. This would include both public and private issues. It was moved that the Society help with the expenses on this venture. Nominations for election of five board members whose terms expire will be made from the floor at the general meeting; these members will be elected for one (1) year terms.

Board approved the expenses of the Treasurer and the Secretary. Meeting adjourned at 10:20 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Dorothy C. Baber, Secretary

GENERAL MEETING of Token and Medal Society
August 25, 1973, Independence Room, Sheraton Boston Hotel, Boston, Mass.

The meeting was called to order by President Byron Johnson, with approximately 80 members present. Officers reports were presented from Secretary Dorothy Baber, Treasurer Charles Ricard, Editor Virginia Culver. A Budget Committee had been established to discuss investment of the Society's capital, and look into limitations on spending. Bylaws committee reported that the age restriction had been lowered to 12 years and that the Board had passed the proposal relative to electing Token and Medal Society officers by a mail ballot. Complete revisions to the Bylaws will be printed in the December issue of the Journal.

Token and Medal Society will again this year award a Junior Scholarship of $350.00 to the A.N.A. Seminar. Book Editor Neil Harris announced that work is continuing on the Charles Kappen California Token Book with photography complete but work on the manuscript taking longer than anticipated.

Call was made for nomination of five board members to serve one year terms. Nominated were Gordon Greene, Richard Dusterberg, Ben Odesser, Arlie Slabaugh, Maurice Gould, Ray Byrne, and Jim Betton. Nominations were closed and members were asked to submit written ballots — Charles Ricard and Dottie Dow were appointed as tellers. Dealer Max Treasnor requested that dealers do all they possibly can to encourage the young collector and requested that any dealer who is accused of discrimination of youthful collectors, and found guilty, be placed on a black list. Relaxing this somewhat, a resolution was proposed by Ken Hallenback that we, the Token and Medal Society, urge dealers and other adult collectors to give all consideration possible to young collectors of exonumia. It passed.

It was moved by Gene Mushinski that any elected officer of TAMS organization will not hold office in more than one other office in a regional, state or national organization while he should be running for elective office. Opposition was raised by several (Russ Rulau, Walter Riley) stating that local, regional and state organization offices are good training ground for national officers; a second was heard, questions called for, and soundly defeated. Ed 'Smiley' Burnette asked help in gathering material of St. Louis Exposition and a plea was made for Arlie Slabaugh for material on swastika type tokens — the good luck kind.

Gene Mushinski brought up the subject of a TAMS day in conjunction with A.N.A., similar to the SPAN day which follows ANA, but no action was taken. Results of the election for Board members was announced — elected were Gordon Greene, Maurice Gould, Arlie Slabaugh, Ben Odesser and Ray Byrne. Motion was made by Dick Yeoman, seconded by several, that the Secretary be allowed to destroy the ballots — motion carried.

Motion to adjourn was made by Ken Hallenback, seconded by several and carried.

Respectfully submitted,
Dorothy C. Baber, Secretary

TOKEN AND MEDAL SOCIETY AWARDS LUNCHEON
Sunday, August 26, 1973
Boston, Mass.

President Byron Johnson introduced the Master of Ceremonies William F. Krieg, Vice-President of Collectors Relations of Franklin Mint, who opened the Luncheon meeting with the following message: Listen my children, and you shall hear, of the midday lunch of TAMS, right here. On the 26th of August in '73, Byron entrusted a delightful job to me — introducing TAMS members from far and near. One Culver at hand, two Mitchells I see; Odesser and Hatie are opposite me. So bring the word to each Middlesex village and farm. TAMS is in town — spread the alarm. (Bill Krieg and Ed Trautman)

In addition to Mr. Wm. Krieg and Byron Johnson, President of Token and Medal Society, seated at the head table were Dottie Dow, 1st Vice President of TAMS; Gordon Greene, Clifford Mishler, 2nd Vice President of TAMS; Nancy Fitts and Arthur Fitts; Alphonse Kolb, noted designer and subject of the latest TAMS bonus Journal issue; Norman Williams, Past President of Canadian Numismatic Assn; Roy Cahoon, Director of Public Relations of U.S. Mint and Mrs. Cahoon and Dorothy Baber, Secretary of TAMS.

A certificate of appreciation was presented to Arthur M. Fitts, III, the General Chairman of this 82nd A.N.A. convention for his assistance to the Society.

Neil Harris, Book Editor, announced that the Socicty will help finance the research of a catalog on all medals struck at the Philadelphia Mint, prior to December 31, 1899. This research is being compiled by member R. W. Julian.

Sandra Rae Mishler Catalog Awards were presented to the following by Clifford Mishler: For 1964, Gold Award, Arlie Slabaugh, Ku Klux Klan Tokens and Medals; Silver, Virginia Culver, Black Magic; Bronze, J. B. Findlay, Conjurers Coins and Medals. 1972: Gold, George and Melvin Fuld, U.S. Civil War Store Cards; Silver, Lewis K. Ferguson, Trade Tokens of Iowa; Bronze, J. Charles Ricard presented to Alphonse Kolb a bound copy of the August bonus issue of the JOURNAL which was dedicated to Alphonse Kolb.

Following literary awards were made by Dottie Dow. Silver Award, Robert Craigo, The History of "System" Coal Company Scrip, Parts 1 and 2; Bronze Award, Elwin Leslie, The Lota and Schwager Coal Mine Tokens of Central Chile; Honorable Mention, Gordon Dodrill, The Bessemer Coal, Iron and Land Co. Stores; Neil Shafer, Food Stamp Tokens Scrip and Due Bills; Bill Manning, The R. M. Rose Co. Store Cards; Walter Caldwell, Scrip Stories. The only one of the above present to accept his award was Neil Shafer.

Presentaion of the Segel Gold Literary Achievement Award was made by Wm. F. Krieg, to David Gladfelter for his article Relics of New Jersey's Village Industry. David, with his wife and young son, was present to accept this coveted award.

E. V. Catoe donated to Token and Medal Society museum the die stamp of a medal he had struck for this convention.

Medallic Arts Medal of Merit was presented to TAMS Librarian Irene Alexander, by Virginia Culver, a past recipient of the medal herself.

Following the introduction of the newly elected Board members Gordon Greene, Arlie Slabaugh, Maurice Gould, Ray Byrne and Ben Odesser, door prizes were awarded by Dorothy Baber. The six Zodiac items furnished by the Franklin Mint, five covers containing elongated cents donated by Dottie

Dow, an American Worlds Fair medal donated by Warwick Harwood and the three floral pieces on the head table were won by Mrs. S. W. Freeman, Shirley Johnson, Ronald Benice, Leon Lindheim, Betty Harwood, Herman Krajewski, Florence Schook, Mark P. Sawyer, Lila Osborn, Elaine Clarenback, E. V. Catoe, Jr., Gordon Greene, Kurt Fischer, George Hatie and Neil Shafer.

Elongated cents commemorating this luncheon, were given to all present, courtesy of Dottie Dow, as well as a metric inch conversion ruler furnished by Ed "Smiley" Burnette.

AMERICA'S BICENTENNIAL HONORED

The well-known artist, Arnaldo Marchetti, has captured the spirt of the American Bicentennial in a most impressive medallion.

Exactly one and one-half inches in diameter (the size of the old silver dollar), the reverse carries the wording "United States of America, 200 Years of Liberty". The American Eagle is illustrated, as well as the Liberty Bell. The Eagle is most interesting; poised for flight over the Bell, it is obviously on guard, peaceful yet ever watchful. The Bell also deserves the closest examination, as it shows in graphic manner the exquisite detail of this masterpiece; the wording on the Bell is clearly decipherable under magnification, yet is hardly recognizable to the naked eye.

A magnificent Liberty carries the torch and laurel wreath on the obverse. In the background is a cannon, reminiscent of the heroic struggle for independence, as well as Independence Hall, indicative of the Constitution. A plow-man, breaking new land, with his plow hitched to an ox, takes us back to the struggle of the pioneers, while smoke rising from a factory signifies the industrial might of America.

The medallion could best be described as destined to stir the emotions of every true American who examines it in the minute detail it deserves; the story of America is here. World-wide interest in the Bicentennial and the painstaking detail that went into the creation of this medallion should make it a collector's item in the true sense of the word; the Bicentennial Medallion should appreciate in value at a greater-than-normal rate over the years.

The American Bicentennial Medallion may be ordered directly from The Lombardo Mint, Box 525, Derby Line, Vermont 05830, in genuine Lombardo Bronze, at $3.00, or in .999 pure silver at $12.00. Please add 50¢ for postage and handling.
